Weston Green School sports day with Jenny Archer and Paralympics 2016 hopefuls Moatez Jomni and Justin Levene.

Athletic stars join in sports day

WESTON Green School pupils were joined by some big figures in the Paralympic world for their sports day.

Jenny Archer, known for being the coach of Paralympic wheelchair athlete David Weir, and Paralympics 2016 hopefuls Moatez Jomni and Justin Levene joined the children for their sports day at Kingsmeadow Stadium in Kingston, last month.

The special guests met the children, started some of the races and were introduced to the crowd of parents who were cheering on the competitors.

Mike Harrison, headteacher at Weston Green School, said: "We were delighted to welcome Jenny Archer to our annual sports day, along with Mo and Justin.

"Parents and staff were treated to some fantastic sporting performances from our pupils and a great day was had by all. We would like to extend our warmest thanks to our guests and wish them the very best of luck for their goal of the 2016 Paralympics in Rio."
